

Mike Leigh

Honorary
Freeman of the City of Salford

On the set of Peterloo
Photograph by Simon Mein, © Thin Man Films

Honorary
Freeman of the City of Salford

Mike Leigh

Wednesday 24 July 2019
Ceremony at 2.00pm in the Council
Chamber, Salford Civic Centre followed by Afternoon Tea at 3.00pm in the Salford
Suite, Salford Civic Centre

Order of proceedings

The Ceremonial Mayor, Councillor Charlie McIntyre and the Chief Executive, Mr Jim Taylor, will enter the Council Chamber at 2.00pm.

The Ceremonial Mayor will welcome guests to the Ceremony of the Freedom of the City for Mr Mike Leigh and announce that the business of the Council is to confer the Honorary Freedom of the City of Salford to Mr Mike Leigh.

The Ceremonial Mayor will invite the City Mayor to move a motion for the admittance of Mr Leigh as Honorary Freeman of the City of Salford.

The Ceremonial Mayor will invite Councillor Stephen Coen to second the motion.

The Ceremonial Mayor will then request that the Council votes on the motion, to grant the Freedom of the City to Mr Mike Leigh. The Chief Executive, Mr Jim Taylor will ask Mr Leigh to sign the declaration, confirming his acceptance of the Freedom of the City of Salford.

The Ceremonial Mayor, City Mayor and Chief Executive will then sign the declaration.

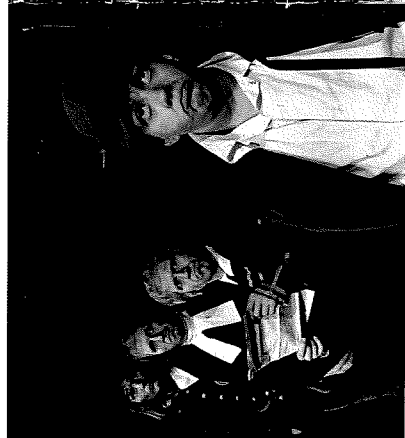

The Chief Executive will present Mr Leigh with an illuminated scroll and medal, granting the Honorary Freedom of the City of Salford.

Mr Mike Leigh will give his acceptance speech.

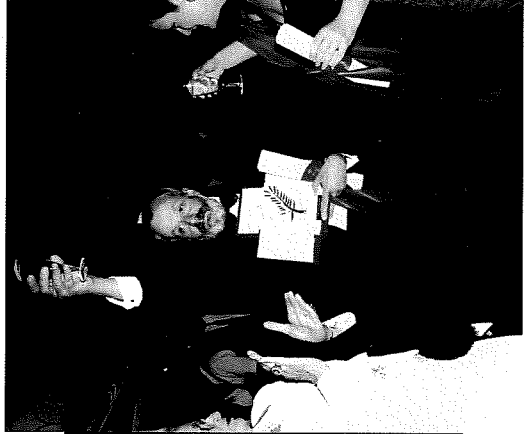

The Ceremonial Mayor will formally conclude the ceremony and invite everyone to join them for Afternoon Tea which will be served in the Salford Suite.

North Grecian Street Primary School Salford 1948

Mike Leigh (foreground) in Shakespeare's 'Love's Labour's Lost' RADA, London, 1962

Mike Leigh at Cannes with Palme D'or for Secrets and Lies 1996

Mike Leigh on set of Mr Turner 2013 with Dick Pope and Crew